

PROBATE COURT OF PIKE COUNTY, OHIO

ESTATE OF _____

CASE NO. _____

APPLICATION TO DISPENSE WITH THE FILING OF THE INVENTORY AND FINAL ACCOUNT, AND TO DISCHARGE FIDUCIARY

Applicant asks the Court to dispense with the filing of the inventory and final account, for the reason that: [check one of the following]

- The estate was opened to pursue a cause of action in favor of the estate or to defend a cause of action against the estate, and no assets have come into the hands of the fiduciary for which administration is required.
 - There are no probate assets for which administration is required.
 - The probate assets do not exceed the jurisdictional limits for relieving the estate from administration or for summary release from administration.
 - Other: _____
-

Therefore, the applicant asks the Court to discharge the fiduciary and surety, if applicable, and for authority to: [check one of the following]

- to terminate the administration of the estate.
 - to relieve the estate from administration or proceed with summary release from administration.
 - Other: _____
-

Applicant

PROBATE COURT OF PIKE COUNTY, OHIO

ESTATE OF _____

CASE NO. _____

ENTRY DISPENSING WITH FILING THE INVENTORY AND FINAL ACCOUNT, AND DISCHARGING FIDUCIARY

Upon consideration of the application to dispense with the filing of the inventory and final account, the Court dispenses with the filing of the inventory and final account and orders the following:

- the fiduciary and surety, if applicable, are discharged and the administration of the estate is terminated.
- the fiduciary and surety, if applicable, are discharged and the case shall remain open to relieve the estate from administration or proceed with summary release from administration.
- Other: _____

Paul Price, Probate Judge