

RULE IX
COURT STAFF

1. The staff of the court shall consist of deputy clerks, court reporters, intake officers, assignment commissioner, bailiffs, transport officers, community control officers, and such additional persons as may be appointed from time to time. Certain of the staff members may also be assigned for duties in the Probate Division. Nothing in these rules shall be construed as being prohibitive of same person serving in more than one capacity.

The juvenile probation officers shall have the duties assigned under these rules in addition to those provided by law. The court shall control and supervise any volunteer services which may be made available to the court from time to time.

2. The conduct, duties, hours, expenses, leaves of absence and vacations of staff shall be regulated by these rules and by direction of the judge and Court Administrator. The court may promulgate employee rules and regulations consistent with these court rules.
