

RULE 57.2: Entries

1. All entries are to be clearly titled, i.e., Entry Approving Inventory, Entry Denying Motion for New Trial, etc.

2. If any party fails to comply with Superintendence Rule 57(F) (submission of proposed entry within 7 days and/or objections within 7 days) the court will schedule an oral hearing and the court will consider the issue of dismissing the matter or approving the entry without approval of the opposing party.

3. A judgment entry or order bearing evidence of erasures or containing longhand interlineations will not be accepted unless approved by the court.

4. Upon failure to comply with this rule, the matter may be dismissed for want of prosecution or such further action may be taken by the court as is necessary or required by law.

5. Additionally, the court reserves unto itself the right to prepare and file entries.
